

Après Dinner Entertainment by Miss Cathy Foy

Songstress Miss Foy is an award-winning actress, symphony concert performer and recording artist whose career spans from New York's Carnegie Hall, Tokyo's NHK Symphony Orchestra and London's Philharmonic Orchestra. As an original cast member of the New York Musical hit "Song of Singapore", Ms. Foy received a New York Outer Critics Circle Award for her performance. More recently, she was cast in the key role of "Bloody Mary" in the National Tour of New York Lincoln Center's production of Rogers and Hammersteins renowned classic "South Pacific ".

At home in Hawaii, she has been a frequent performer with the Honolulu Symphony Orchestra, Hawaii Opera Theatre, Hawaii Theatre and Diamond Head Theatre. She is a 4 times Best Actress Award Winner in Musical Productions. In her spare time, Ms. Foy is a passionate community volunteer for numerous charitable and public organizations including the American Lung Association of Hawaii for which she created the annual "Breathe Concert". Through her music, she is recognized as Hawaii's most ardent "Ambassador of Aloha" wherever she sings or performs.

